

PAOLO

Ft. Lauderdale, Fl.

Objective: To secure a position as an officer in the growth oriented yachting community, where experience, performance, and responsibility are fostered and appreciated.

Citizenship: USA and ITALIAN Non-smoker
Languages: English, Italian and French

Qualifications: US Coast Guard License, Master 100 T
Associate Mech. Eng. Degree, Politecnico, Turin Italy
Celestial navigation. Advanced PADI
STCW and Radar endorsements.

Professional marine experience and free-lance assignments.

From January 2016 to present, full time free-lance Captain position on Motor Yachts sailing Florida/Bahamas waters.

From December 2012 to December 2015 professional full time Captain position on MY 72' Ferretti, sailing Baleares islands and Florida.

From 1993 to November 2012 full time and free-lance Captain positions on Motor and Sailing Yachts from 70' to 102'. Cruising the Mediterranean French, Spain and Italian Riviera. Dubai, United Arab Emirates. Bahamas, Caribbean and Bermuda islands as well as Lake Michigan via Oswego canal and Hudson River, south and north passages. Also knowledge of Arneson-drive system on board of an Azimut 65' and the latest state of the-art Azimut 86' Sport 15, cruising Florida waters.

Capt. Paolo Crepaldi's portfolio of vessel flotilla consists of:
74'-86' 'Sun seeker, Azimut, Ferretti. 76'-94' Lazzara, 70' Hatteras, 90' CRN Ancona, 105' Baglietto, 102' Broward.

In addition, a successful 6 months as an engineer onboard M.Y. a 150' Leadship, cruising the Caribbean islands for a winter season.

References:

