PROFILE

Eager to advance within with aspirations to become a captain one day. I am a hard-working. Dedicated employee. I have my STCW certification along with my United States passport as well as a United States valid drivers license as well as my boating license from Maryland. Born and raised on the water with owning a boat of my own. And a background in customer service and sales. Makes me the perfect candidate. I would NEVER say not my job, no drama I am here to work hard and give you my all. That is my promise.
