

As a fifth-generation private yacht captain from Boca Grande, FL, I literally grew up on the water. I have extensive experience navigating, maintaining, and managing yachts. I consistently demonstrate the highest level of professionalism with a side of southern hospitality and charm. Safety is always my first consideration with the ultimate goal of providing the most amazing customized yachting experience possible to all involved.

My objective is to obtain a position as a yacht captain that will best utilize my proven yachting and yacht management skills.
